Duty to Avoid Unnecessary Costs of Service of Summons
Rule 4 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires certain parties to cooperate in saving unnecessary costs of service of the summons and complaint. A defeatant located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod by a plaintiff located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod by a plaintiff located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod by a plaintiff located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod axiod by a plaintiff located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod axiod by a plaintiff located in the United States who, after being notified of an action and axiod do so will be required to beer the cost of such service unless good cause be shown for its failure to sign and return the weiver.

It is not good cause for a failure to waive service that a party believes that the complaint is unfounded, or that the action has been brought in an improper place or in a count that jurisdiction over the subject matter of the action or over its person or property. A party who waives service of this sugmons retains all defenues and objections (except any relating to the summons or to the service of the summons), and may later object to the jurisdiction of the court or in the place where the service has been brought.

A contrading who waives service must within the time specified on the waiver form serve on the plointiff's atterney (or unrepresented plaintiff) a respon complaint and must also file a signed copy of the response with the court. If the answer of motion is not served within this time, a default judgment may be taken against: waiving service, a defendant is allowed more time to answer than if the summions had been actually served when the request for waiver of service
